Rescued From Death.
William J. Connelley, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1878 I was taken with dysentery or the "liver" followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and sleep, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope. My friends told me of Dr. Williams' Lung Tonic. I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past. I write this hoping some one afflicted with Dysentery, Cough, or the "liver," as Dr. Williams' Lung Tonic can be cured. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness.

No More Dysentery or Indigestion.
Dr. Williams' celebrated Lung Tonic is the best medicine in use. It never fails to give relief. Read physicians' certificates on the back of bottle. Sold everywhere. 1882

COAST CLIPPINGS.

Freight business is very lively in the Alturas country.
Sacramento county, Cal., courts are making new citizens by the dozen.

A Calaveras Chinaman found a nine and one-half ounce nugget last week.
Near Pola last week, Kavelan Golsh accidentally shot and killed an Indian girl.

That Calaveras snake, which leaves a trail 18 inches wide, has again been heard from.

Some Eureka men who have been up to Wood River, give a poor account of that country, and come back home to run for office.

A Nebraska man offers to send some prairie chickens to the Santa Barbara Rod and Gun Club, to be turned loose in that county.

There is an apricot tree in Fresno county, Cal., that measures 60 inches around the trunk three feet from the ground. It is estimated that there is not less than a ton of fruit on the tree.

About 40 men were taken on at the navy yard at Vallejo, Monday. As soon as the material for the new dock arrives the force will be still further increased. There are 450 men at work on the island at present.

Four hundred acres of coal lands known as the Westwood farm, near Nansimo, has been sold to San Francisco parties for $110,000. A year ago $5 an acre was the highest price offered for the same tract.

Near Walla Walla, on Tuesday, Edward Thompson had his arm bitten off at the elbow joint by the teeth of a threshing machine cylinder. By presence of mind in throwing off the belt, he saved himself from being drawn bodily into the monster.

Mail advices from Jacksonville say an emigrant family named Garber, en route from Yuba, Cal., to Spokane Falls, W. T., were thrown from a wagon near Linkville. Mrs. Garber had her neck broken and her body frightfully mangled. Mr. Garber suffered a broken leg and other injuries, and was taken back to Linkville.

Last week Baptist Malloni, an Italian woodchopper, hung himself in a cabin about three miles north of Cherry Creek, Nev., with a piece of balling rope, which he threw over a rafter in the cabin. The man had evidently been demented for some time. About two months ago he attempted self-destruction but failed.

The coroner's jury, in the case of Mrs. Hall, the woman who was killed on the road between Vallejo and Benicia on Friday morning, has rendered the following verdict: "We, the jury, find that Mrs. Lillian P. Hall was killed by being thrown from a buggy driven by W. B. King, whom we find guilty of gross carelessness in driving while intoxicated."

Evidence has been secured which implicates a desperado named Blanchard, in the murder of E. H. Cummings, the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company's agent at New York Bar. Blanchard robbed Hirsch's store previously at Pomeroy, and broke jail at Dayton. He is now secreted in the mountains, and his capture is only a question of time.

A drive of 9,000,000 feet of saw logs and 180,000 ties for the Northern Pacific Railroad, starts down the Yakima river this week. They have been attached to satisfy a claim of $50,000 by the Government for stumpage, the timber having been cut on Government lands. The company has rebanded the logs, but the ties remain in the hands of the Sheriff.

J. T. Berry, Esq., Rockland, Maine, President of the Lime Rock National Bank, and also of the Knox and Lincoln R. R., says he had the rheumatism in his left foot and leg. He used three bottles of St. Jacobs Oil and it relieved him wonderfully. He calls it "a splendid article."

SALMON CANNING.

The catching and canning of salmon on the Pacific Coast has developed into a very important industry during the last 12 years, but the business just now seems to be on the decline. In 1869 there were 23,000 cases of salmon packed, and in 1871 35,000. This aggregate had in 1873 increased to 103,738 cases, in 1876 to 438,730, and in 1881 to 663,126. This increase has not been healthy, but has been produced by unwise and destructive forcing of resources that at first seemed almost inexhaustible. The Bulletin says the fish first began to disappear from the Sacramento. In 1876 nearly all the fish that entered the river were intercepted on their way to the spawning ground, and the destruction would have been at once seriously felt except for the efforts of the Fish Commission, which began to hatch salmon and supply the river as well as they were able, though their appropriation for all purposes is but $50,000 annually. For a while they seemed to keep ahead of the fishermen; but this year the latter increased greatly in number, and not choosing to wait till their prey entered the river, stretched their nets across the Golden Gate and Raccoon straits, and there expected their coming. If the disappointment of the fishermen were not a public loss we should be gratified to know that their rapacity failed, for the season's catch in all places and ways has been only about one-third that of 1881. The experience in Oregon has been similar.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Prohibition Demanded.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 10. The Republican State Convention adopted the following prohibition plank in their platform this morning: That we declare ourselves unequalled in favor of prohibiting the manufacture, sale, or interchanging of liquors as a beverage, and pledge ourselves to such additional legislation as shall secure the rigid enforcement of a constitutional amendment upon this subject in all parts of the State.

Other resolutions requesting the Legislature to submit to the people a constitutional amendment in favor of woman's suffrage; requesting their Congressmen to secure an amendment to the revenue laws, to prevent issuing receipts or stamps to sell liquor to any person other than those authorized to do so under the State laws. Two or three planks provide stringent railroad laws.

The Eight-Hour Rule.
WASHINGTON, August 10. Secretary Chandler stated to-day, in answer to an inquiry on that subject, that while he proposed to enforce the eight-hour law in the navy yards, he would not take any action towards that end just at present.

The navy department is informed that Commodore Shufeldt, who had just returned from China, was admitted to the naval hospital at Mare Island on the 2d inst. No particulars are given. Secretary Chandler, in speaking of Commodore Shufeldt's case, with reference to his conduct while negotiating the Korean treaty, said that no information had been received by him to justify the detail of a Court of Inquiry into the case, nor in fact did he feel that any action at his hands was necessary.

A Deserted Village.
ELIZABETH, N. Y., August 10.

Felville, the deserted village of the Union Company, has been sold at master's sale by the Receiver of the Globe Mutual Insurance Company, of New York, for $11,450. The village contains twenty houses, two mills, church, schoolhouse, store and mill dam. In the sale were included 800 acres of land, 200 acres of it tillable. The village was first owned and built by the Felt Paper Manufacturer and was then very flourishing. They sold it to Townsend, the sarsaparilla man, and the latter borrowed $60,000 from the Globe Mutual on a mortgage. The President of the Globe Company, once offered $250,000 for the property.

New Steamers for the Pacific.
PHILADELPHIA, August 10. The large steamers Tacoma and Don Pedro, built by Champ & Sons for the Central Pacific Railroad Company, are now completed. Champ has received a contract for two new iron steamships for the Oceanic Steamship Company, to ply between San Francisco and the Sandwich Islands, and the vessels are to be started as soon as the iron can be got ready. They are to be 320 feet long, 42 feet beam, 26 feet deep and 2,800 tons burden, and capable of making 14½ knots an hour.

Disgusted with Chicago's Laws.
CHICAGO, August 10.

I. C. Holm, the Dane who became notorious last week through having buried on the lake front several children whom he was charged with first murdering, but who was acquitted of the charge and fined for the irregular burial, became disgusted with Chicago's ways and started down the south branch of the lake yesterday afternoon in a small skiff, with a son aged 14 years. Before going a great distance his frail boat upset and both were drowned.

Cheating the Government.
OTTAWA, August 10.

Lumbermen in Ottawa district are excited over the new regulations governing the importation of Canadian lumber to the United States. It appears lumber which has been imported as one-inch boards are really one inch and a quarter thick, and the United States Government having discovered this issued orders which caused the temporary suspension of the lumber business.

Avenge an Insult.
SEDLIA, Mo., August 10.

In a quarrel between Ed. Adams and J. R. Cox, at Pleasant Hill, growing out of an insult to Adams' wife by Cox, a large number of shots were exchanged. Adams discharged both barrels of a shotgun, then broke the gun over Cox's head, and fired five shots from a revolver, hitting him three times, mortally wounding him. Cox fired twice without effect. Adams surrendered.

The Contest Over.
BEARDSTOWN, Ill., August 9.

There have been 1,500 ballots taken in the Twelfth Congressional District. No choice yet. Singleton, the present representative, leads.

FOREIGN.

The Ex-Khedive's View of the Egyptian Troubles.

PARIS, August 10.

A Herald correspondent says: Ismail Pasha, ex-Khedive of Egypt, arrived with his sons Hussein and Hassan two days ago from Vichy and took up his abode for a few days at the Grand Hotel. His arrival just at this juncture has naturally set people to speculating, and it is thought it will be given out that His Highness is here on private business. The explanation is accepted rather skeptically. Signor Crispi, curiously enough, happened to be here incognito. I do not profess to know Ismail's attitude towards French interviewers who have endeavored to learn his views on the Egyptian situation. So far he has been reserved and has politely refused any information. His Highness consented to see the Herald correspondent this afternoon. I inquired whether he believed the present conflict likely to assume a religious character. "Do you think," said I, "that there is a serious danger of its developing into a Pan Islam movement, or are you of the opinion, expressed to me some time back by the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, that Pan Islamism is not so terrible as it has been painted?"

"It is impossible to deny that there is, unfortunately, much fanaticism in the fight," replied Ismail. "I think it has been exaggerated. It would be deplorable for my country if anything so retrograde as a religious fanaticism should have been encouraged. Egypt needs civilization and the light of education. She should go forward to show the world that Mokam is not incompatible with modern progress. While I ruled Egypt all my efforts were extended in this direction and it was to this that I devoted my life. I am proud to say that I have succeeded in this. I have seen Ismail Pasha, what would be his opinion be the result? The landing of Turkish troops in Egypt, but he professed not to have sufficient data on which to base an opinion. "It is long," he remarked, "since I was in Constantinople, and my view would be valueless unless I were in the confidence of the Turkish and British Ministers. All I know is that great misfortunes have overcome my country, and I trust they may soon pass away."

EGYPT'S TROUBLES.

Great Indignation at the Conduct of De Lesseps—Arab's Government Out of Grace.

ALEXANDRIA, August 9.

Osman Bey, the Khedive's Master of Horse, escaped from Cairo and arrived here via Teheran. He stated that the rebels are fortifying the junction of the Suez, Ismailia and Cairo Railway lines. They have four guns and 2,000 infantry there. Stone Pasha expresses great indignation at the conduct of De Lesseps, who refused to furnish him a launch to convey him from Ismailia to Port Said. Owing to the scarcity of water, refugees unprovided with passports are forbidden to land. Hadi Mousa, deeply implicated in the event of June 11, was arrested to-day. While doing police duty it is alleged that he murdered Kewass, an attaché of the French Consulate. It is said the French Director of Domains states openly that he has sold Arabi Pasha's government grain.

LONDON, August 9.

The transport Canadian has sailed from Woolwich with 1,500 tons of railway plank for Egypt.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 10.

The Sultan's proclamation declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel also condemns the conduct of the military leaders as rebellious and criminal, and mentions friendly relations with England.

Imperial Visit.

ST. PETERSBURG, August 10.

The Emperor, Empress and other members of the Imperial family, accompanied by the Queen of Hellenes, arrived Sunday by rail at Krasno. Monday they visited the military camp and inspected the troops. The camp was gaily decorated, and as the party passed, the band, comprising 800 musicians, played a national anthem. The force taking part in the maneuvers numbered 45,000.

The Arrests Bill.

LONDON, August 10.

In consequence of a meeting of the Conservative Peers at Lord Salisbury's residence to-day there will be no division in the House of Lords to-night on the Arrests bill, as returned from the Commons. Salisbury adhered to his original view regarding the Lord's amendment to the bill, but he was over-ruled by a large majority of those present.

WESTERN.

Indian Trouble.

TUCSON, August 9.

The Star's Mexican special from Guaymas, Sonora, says: Last Wednesday the Apaches raided and killed all the inhabitants of the rancho Carizo, Sahuaripa District, Sonora, Mexico, women and children included, and burnt the house. On Saturday morning they murdered a vaquero near Pelomas, two others escaping, being fortunately a little behind. They also ambuscaded a scouting party of rancheros, consisting of 14 men, two of whom only escaped, 11 being left on the field, while one of them, who was shot through both legs, was dragged a short distance into the bush. This massacre occurred at the Theodonia mine, which is but a short distance from the Yaquira river, at Recorde, and lies between the California and Potero mines, belonging to the Labaranca Mill and Mining Company. The same day the mail rider was shot while crossing the Rio Chico.

The Contention Mine's Riches.

TOMBSTONE, August 9.

A magnificent body of ore was struck on the 600 foot level of the Contention mine last night. This is the lowest depth ore has been discovered so far. A band of Indians broke loose from San Carlos a few days ago, and passed 12 miles from this city, in the direction of Sonora. Yesterday they were hotly pursued by two companies of cavalry and a company of Indian scouts. Much unfavorable comment is made that the agent did not send out a telegraphic report to warn the settlers.

The Work of a Lunatic.

YREKA (Cal.), August 10.

Osterman, a saloon-keeper in Hawk-insville, shot Mitchell Brown, while in a crazy fit last night. Brown and another man were sitting up with him on account of his being out of his mind. In the night Osterman imagined robbers were in the yard and fired, shooting Brown twice. One shot passed through the hand and the second through the side. The wounds are considered mortal.

AUGUST ARGUMENTS.

A Charge of Shot From the Head of an Independence Lake Family.
A bit of scrimmage occurred at Independence lake, Monday afternoon, which came near being serious. Some time ago M. Jansen, says the Truckee Republican, the owner of the Independence Lake Hotel property, made everything over to his son-in-law, W. W. Penman, to secure a debt which Jansen was owing Penman, and since that time the hotel has been run by Mr. Penman. Jansen has been at the lake all the time, and has repeatedly found fault with the manner in which Penman has managed affairs, and frequently serious troubles have resulted. In nearly all of these little family jars his wife and daughter, Mrs. Penman, have sided with the young man, and the old gentleman has had his hands full in holding his own against the trio. Monday last Mr. Jansen again found fault with something Penman had done, but the latter paid no attention to him. This so exasperated the old gentleman that he grabbed up a double-barreled shot gun, and turned the contents of one barrel loose at his hard-headed son-in-law. Fortunately the charge did not take effect, and before he had time to fire again, the gun was taken away from him. About this time the Webber Lake stage came along, and Jansen, after hastily packing a small valise, left for Truckee, and on Monday took the train for below. He said he would not return to the lake again.

A Good Camp.

BIG MEADOWS, Cal., Aug 5, '82.
EDITOR GAZETTE: I have at last found the paradise of hunters and tourists. A more charming place in all northern California for a few days rest cannot be found. Already the army of pleasure seekers is growing quite formidable, and each incoming stage augments the number. On the 23d of this month the convalescence of Knights Templar of Susanville, to last one week, meet here. Then the hills will echo to the strains of bands of music; the funny tribe will have to suffer; each charming place for pleasant tete-a-tetes will be utilized; gushers, young and old, will enjoy moonlight sails upon the river. The excitement of the day will be varied by dainty feminine screams, induced by the festive cricket, or the sly swift (lizard), bent on some new voyage of discovery. If any of your Renoiters wish to rusticate, send them up here, and when they return, to one knowing the place, no fish story will be too large to perpetrate. Yours, truly,
G. A. SMALL.

For County Clerk.

Herman J. Thyes notifies his friends that he is a candidate for County Clerk subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. Mr. Thyes was timekeeper and paymaster for over a year in the new City Hall, San Francisco, and proved himself thoroughly competent and honest. He was business manager for one of the largest wholesale houses in Reno for over a year and managed the business to the satisfaction of his employers and made many new customers. He is a young gentleman that holds an enviable position in the business world and has the confidence of everybody. If nominated for the office he will make a strong run, and if elected he will certainly make a good officer.

Convincing.

In offering to every one throughout the land a trial bottle of Syrup of Figs free of charge the California Fig Syrup Company is fully aware that it was folly to do so if the new remedy did not possess greater merit than any other article ever offered as a cure for biliousness and constipation. But knowing every dose will convince the one who takes it of its efficacy, and make another friend for the remedy which is destined to become universal, they wish every one to try it. For sale by all druggists.

The Labor Market.

Good, reliable working men are in demand in Truckee at the present time. There is a large number of men there, says the Republican, who profess to be looking for work, but it is safe to say they are praying they will not find it. They are probably looking for a job of cutting ice somewhere. The lumbermen on the river are in need of men and first-class wages are offered, but first-class men are hard to find.

Finishing His Education.

M. W. Fredrick, son of M. M. Fredrick, of Virginia, left this morning for Harvard University. His mother came this far with him. He will finish his education in Germany. Marcus is a talented musician, and one of the brightest young men Nevada has ever produced.

A Splendid Stock.

I. Fredrick is constantly adding to his large stock of jewelry and silverware. A look at his goods will convince anyone of how foolish it is to send to San Francisco or anywhere else for that class of goods. For a wedding present or any other kind of gift, call in and take a look.

Discharged.

Thomas Miller and John Brang were discharged from the asylum this morning. Miller was committed from Eureka county eight months ago. Brang was from Storey county.

A WAVE FROM LAKE TAHOE.

Reno Well Represented—How to Keep Cool and Enjoy Life.

TALLAC, August 8, 1892.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Oh ye Renoiters who are broiling and baking in the Summer sun, how we pity you! Our days are delightful, the nights cool, and our camp fires stand beyond description. We have a jolly party from your town—Mr. Miller and wife, Uncle Donald McKay, Charles Miller Jr., Walter Hastings, the Misses Finlayson and Miss Chapman. Their music has made our evenings pleasant. There is a camp from Carson of five, one from Oakland of seven, the Woodland camp of five, the Folsom camp of five, and the Sacramento camp, making 70 persons all told.
H. S. Swain has the Bliss House, and if any of you poor, suffering mortals wish to know what pure enjoyments means, come up here. There was a party at Tallac last evening. One of the ladies present sprained her ankle, and of course she fainted and broke up the dance. The house is full, and kept better than ever before.
SUSAN JANE.

Ghosts by Night.

Most persons have a great aversion to seeing ghosts in the dark, but a great curiosity to see a ghost if it could be seen in the light. A rare opportunity is offered by Mr. J. Miller, who will hold a spiritualistic seance at the Nevada Theatre this evening. This spiritual manager has associated with him other mediums said to be newly developed and of extraordinary power, by whose aid he promises to cause ghosts to appear and send them out among the audience shaking hands with all those who are not afraid. He also proposes to make a large table rise and float in the air, and a piano rise and give forth music without any visible performer. The spirits will bring flowers in their hands, will play on guitars, will cause musical instruments to float through the air, will write in blood and do various other things. Mr. Miller promises all this and much more, which he does not ask you to believe on his say so, but asks everybody to go and see for themselves.

The Luxuries of Wealth.

A Pacific coast millionaire who has become somewhat blasé in seeing the world by the ordinary modes of travel, proposes making a trip around the world in his own steam yacht, accompanied by a few choice and other spirits. The Post says the vessel is now building to his order in one of the Delaware shipyards, and the builder has a carte blanche to make her as elegant and complete as money can pay for. The owner will invite a number of friends; the yacht will be fitted and stocked with every necessary to luxurious comfort, will be manned by a picked crew under an experienced commander, and provided with a corps of capable servants and a lighted chef. The cook has already been engaged in Paris, and is now under salary. As interpreter, a man who is a thorough master of eight languages, has been engaged and is also now under pay. The party will leave San Francisco next March.

Special Premiums.

Knowles & Bainbridge offer $25 for the handsomest lady visiting the pavilion, Friday night, of Fair week. The question is to be decided by ballot.

George Cunningham and William Davids offer $20 for the best walking team of horses, or the best walking single horse to go to wagon. Distance one mile.

Pete Evans is raising a purse of $50 to be offered for a two-mile dash, running. Ladies to ride.

Wines at Wholesale.

E. Chielovich, the boss of the Wine House, is up from the city taking a look at things. He comes here every few months to replenish his immense stock of wines and liquors. The wholesale department of the Wine House is doing a good business. The price at which they sell goods is so much below San Francisco prices that retailers prefer to buy there.

Very Likely.

The Index says: "The candidacy of General Alvaro Evans is said to show a great deal of strength in Washoe county."

"Hon. W. W. Bishop thinks that General Evans will prove quite formidable opponents for the gubernatorial nomination at the Reno Convention."

Well Known.

The Republican says: "Frank Hobart the young man who was killed last week, 13 miles north of Reno, by being knocked out of a wagon, was well known in Truckee. He was here two months last Spring, and worked in McLellan & Lowden's box factory."

The Gentleman's Newspaper.
The Breeder and Sportsman is a handsome paper and is well filled with excellent matter. Mr. Simpson's articles are very able and interesting.

Use, instead of unwholesome cosmetics, Golden's Sulphur Soap, which purifies the skin.

Hill's Hair Dye, black or brown, 50 cents.

The Place to Go.

The American House has been refitted and newly furnished, and James Conroy, the veteran hotel-keeper and late of the Western, is at the helm. The house is one of the best in town. The beds are good; the table is supplied with everything the market affords and the bar is second to none. Soda and Reno beer by the keg, gallon or glass can be had. Mr. Conroy has many friends and is doing a splendid business. Visitors to Reno can rest assured of good treatment by stopping at the American House.

A Crank from the City.

Julius Stephens, an insane man from San Francisco, is in the Washoe county jail. He escaped from his friends in San Francisco and found his way to this place. It is expected that he will shortly be taken back to California.

Petty Larceny.

Wm. Durfee and James Williams stole a bolt of cloth from outside Yankee Dodge's store. Avery and Jones arrested them. They pleaded guilty to petty larceny, but have not been sentenced.
